

Logic Model for New Practice for Providing Services to In-Home Families

Resources	Activities	Key Practice Outputs	Short-Term	Medium-Term	Long-Term	Goal	Long-Term Indicators
							Family level outcomes
Strengths-based, family-centered practice model	Shared responsibility for engaging the family	# and % of families receiving services jointly from CFSA and Collaborative staff	Caregivers recognize the safety needs of their children.	Caregivers demonstrate improved coping mechanisms and developmentally appropriate nurturance.	Children remain safe.	Families remain stable and intact.	# and % of caregivers who implement and sustain their safety plan over a 6-month period.
Families	Help the family assess (and reassess) its needs and strengths	% of families participating in completion of assessment tools			Caregivers demonstrate age and developmentally appropriate parenting skills to promote child safety.		# and % of children who are continually assessed to be adequately supervised by an adult in the home. # and % of caregivers implementing age appropriate positive disciplinary practices
Credentialed CFSA and Collaborative staff	Help the family decide on a goal and steps toward reaching that goal	# and % of case plans co-written and signed by family members	Families recognize the components of a stable, healthy and secure living environment.	Families demonstrate the ability to maintain a stable, healthy and secure living environment without consistently relying upon emergency intervention.	Families have financial and housing stability.		# and % of families able to comply with lease or mortgage terms for 12 months # and % of families living in housing free of health or safety hazards # and % of caregivers employed (PT/FT) # and % of families with adequate income to meet their financial and resource needs
Training and education on strengths-based family engagement	Empower family members to generate their own solutions through their active participation in the development and implementation of the activities in the case plan	# and % of case plans meeting the quality standards established in the practice protocol	Families report increased contact with and an understanding of the importance of informal and formal support networks.	Families demonstrate the ability to effectively identify and access necessary formal and informal supports for themselves and their children.	Families have strengthened social connections with formal and informal supports.		# and % of caregivers who report feeling adequately supported by friends, family, or professional, and social, religious or recreational groups. # and % of caregivers who have appropriate and reliable child care and resources for respite care. # and % of caregivers who report meeting or speaking with their children's school personnel
Assessment tools	Help the family make a written plan for pursuing these goals	# of hours engaged in face-to-face contact with families	Families can identify their own strengths and understand the importance of using those strengths to achieve case plan goals.	Families effectively advocate for their own needs.	Families access concrete services and supports independently.		# and % of families with health care coverage # and % of pregnant women who receive appropriate pre-natal care. # and % of families who can identify and use mental health services when needed.
Neighborhood-based service delivery system	Communicate desirable outcomes, requirements for safe case closure, time frames, and rights and responsibilities clearly and directly	% of home visits meeting the quality standards established in the practice protocol	Families recognize their developmental and well-being needs.	Families address their physical, emotional, behavioral, and academic needs.	Caregiver functioning is adequate to promote child well-being.		# and % of caregivers exhibiting reduced stress levels # and % of caregivers unimpaired by substance abuse # and % of caregivers that are functionally unimpaired by mental health problems.
Federal and local funds	Visit the family regularly to ensure child safety, child-family engagement in services, and effectiveness of services in stimulating positive change	% of home visits linked to case plan goals			Family and child well-being is improved.		# and % of families without DV indicators # and % of children with up-to-date physicals, immunizations, and dental exams. # and % of school-aged children who demonstrate age and grade level appropriate academic achievement. # and % of school-aged children with < 10 unexcused absences and 8 unexcused tardy days per AY # and % of eligible HS-aged youth who graduate or receive a GED (w/n 12 mos of case closure)
Multi-system partners	Advocate for and with a family with other agencies, schools and businesses	% of referrals made that successfully link families to needed resources	Families/family members report receiving the service.	Families/family members report satisfaction with the service.	Families attain goal for service delivery and/or successfully terminate service		?
	Coordinate family meetings, when appropriate	# and % of family meetings held for all families served	# and % of family members participating in family meetings	Family participants report FTMs as helpful to achieving case plan goals.

Logic Model for New Practice for Providing Services to In-Home Families

Resources	Activities	Key Practice Outputs	Short-Term	Medium-Term	Long-Term	Goal	Long-Term Indicators
			System level outcomes
	Facilitate multi-system planning and service provision	% of cases safely closed within 12 months	Multi-system partners identify the processes and supports to function in partnership with families as a multi-system team addressing families' immediate needs and risk factors.	Multi-system partners continue to team to meet the underlying service needs of families.	Abuse and neglect rates are reduced.	Families remain stable and intact.	# and % of families with open In-Home cases that do not have a substantiated re-report of abuse or neglect within 12-months of case opening.
	Increase service collaboration and access	% of family meetings with multiple service providers attending			Community and public resources are used more efficiently.		# and % of families with closed In-Home cases that do not have a substantiated re-report of abuse or neglect within 12 months of safe case closure.
		% growth in service array available	Multi-system partners understand strengths-based, family-centered practices.	Multi-system partners continue building strengths-based, family-centered practices.	Family engagement and outcomes are improved.		# and % of children/ families in community-based resources.
							# and % of children receiving services In-Home versus Out-of-Home.
							# and % of families reporting an overall positive experience working with community resources.
							# and % of families reporting an overall positive experience working with In-Home staff (CFSA and Collaboratives).
						# and % of families reporting improvement in their families' condition upon case closure.
						# and % of families reporting continued positive outcomes 6 months after safe case closure	